

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CHASE C. HARTUNG,

Defendant.

4:24CR3017

ORDER

The Court had a telephone conference scheduled in this matter today. Defendant emailed the Court and moved the Court to continue the Telephone Conference (Filing No. 29), because defense counsel has a scheduling conflict and Defendant needs additional time to consider and decide whether to enter a guilty plea. The motion to continue is unopposed. Based on the showing set forth in the motion, the court finds good cause has been shown and is granted. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

- 1) Defendant's motion to continue, (Filing No. 29), is granted.
- 2) The conference call previously scheduled to be held on July 8, 2024, is continued. A telephonic conference with counsel will be held before the undersigned magistrate judge at 10:00 a.m. on August 7, 2024 to discuss setting any pretrial motion hearing needed, a change of plea hearing, or the date of the jury trial and deadlines for disclosing experts as required under Rule 16. Counsel for all parties shall use the conferencing instructions provided by the court to participate in the call.
- 3) The court finds that the ends of justice served by granting the motion to continue outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial, and the additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, the time between today's date and August 7, 2024 shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act, because although counsel have been duly diligent, additional time is needed to adequately prepare this case for trial and failing to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1) & (h)(7). Failing to timely object to this order as provided under this court's local rules will be deemed a waiver of any right to later claim the time should not have been excluded under the Speedy Trial Act.

Dated this 8th day of July, 2024.
